

Our partner in ministry to the world....

Diakon Lutheran Social Ministries is pleased to welcome Cumberland Crossings Retirement Community, Carlisle, Pa., to our central Pennsylvania family of services. A Continuing Care Retirement Community, Cumberland Crossings was recently purchased by Diakon from the Carlisle Area Health & Wellness Foundation. “We are delighted that Cumberland Crossings is now part of the range of quality services we offer in south-central Pennsylvania,” says the Rev. Daun E. McKee, Ph.D., Diakon president/chief executive officer.

Cumberland Crossings offers 115 units of retirement-housing accommodations, 45 assisted living residences, and 60 skilled-care beds. Cumberland Crossings joins Diakon’s other retirement communities in the Lower Susquehanna Synod: Frey Village at Middletown, Susquehanna Lutheran Village at Millersburg, and Perry Village, New Bloomfield. All are equal housing opportunity facilities.

Other local Diakon services include adoption services for children with special needs, TresslerCare youth services including the Wilderness Center near Boiling Springs, Family Life Services counseling and congregationally focused educational programs, refugee services, and the sponsorship of several Cumberland County-based senior centers.

We welcome you to visit Cumberland Crossings. Just call us at (717) 245-9941 or visit the retirement community’s new Web site at www.diakon.org/cumberlandcrossings.

Our partner in ministry to the world....

Diakon Lutheran Social Ministries is pleased to welcome Cumberland Crossings Retirement Community, Carlisle, Pa., to our central Pennsylvania family of services. A Continuing Care Retirement Community, Cumberland Crossings was recently purchased by Diakon from the Carlisle Area Health & Wellness Foundation. “We are delighted that Cumberland Crossings is now part of the range of quality services we offer in south-central Pennsylvania,” says the Rev. Daun E. McKee, Ph.D., Diakon president/chief executive officer.

Cumberland Crossings offers 115 units of retirement-housing accommodations, 45 assisted living residences, and 60 skilled-care beds. Cumberland Crossings joins Diakon’s other retirement communities in the Lower Susquehanna Synod: Frey Village at Middletown, Susquehanna Lutheran Village at Millersburg, and Perry Village, New Bloomfield. All are equal housing opportunity facilities.

Other local Diakon services include adoption services for children with special needs, TresslerCare youth services including the Wilderness Center near Boiling Springs, Family Life Services counseling and congregationally focused educational programs, refugee services, and the sponsorship of several Cumberland County-based senior centers.

We welcome you to visit Cumberland Crossings. Just call us at (717) 245-9941 or visit the retirement community’s new Web site at www.diakon.org/cumberlandcrossings.