

DIAKON

REACHES OUT TO SOME 70,000 PEOPLE

*With many hands
and one heart*

Every year, across Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, more than 2,000 Diakon caregivers reach out with many hands and one heart to 70,000 people. Diakon Lutheran Social Ministries – a leader in senior living communities and social services – brings hope, hospitality and healing to children, youths, families and adults from all walks of life. And whether that involves new beginnings for an adopted child, new direction for a youth in crisis or renewed celebration of a long life at one of our senior living communities, you should know that when Diakon reaches out it isn't something we take lightly. It's something we all take to heart.
