- Improve mental health and quality of life

Volunteering is good for you, too

Older Americans who volunteer frequently live longer and report better health. Volunteering also can lead to more friendships and a more positive attitude.

Choose how, when and where you serve with commitments ranging from a few hours or more.

Join a network of volunteers and organizations committed to the betterment of your local community!

RSVP involvement uplifts communities by bringing people together, strengthening and expanding community services and providing support to one another.
